ShotSpotter Activation Results in One Arrest

On November 20, 2023, at approximately 11:00 PM, Manchester Police responded to the area of Second and Walker Streets for a ShotSpotter activation.

Arriving officers saw a male in the area, but as they tried to speak to him, he ran. A brief foot pursuit ensued and officers were quickly able to take the man into custody. They also found shell casings in the area.

Police identified the male as 35-year-old Hakeem Shepherd of Manchester. Through the investigation, police learned that Shepherd had been involved in an argument with a female and during the course of the argument fired a gun into the air several times.

Shepherd was arrested and charged with Reckless Conduct-Deadly Weapon, Felon in Possession of a Dangerous Weapon, Possession of a Controlled Drug, and Resisting Arrest.

There is no booking photo available.
